| A. After reading a story the cultures unit, which character were you able to make a connection to? Explain your answer in an essay format. | B. Create a brochure of your country of origin. Include the country's name, capital, facts, places to visit, and pictures. | C. Using your parent or grandparent interviews, make a scrapbook of your heritage. Include food recipes, childhood games, and traditions. |
| D. If you were to live with one of the Native American tribes, which one would you choose? Why? Write an essay. | E. Compare and contrast the life during the CA Missions. Would you rather be the Spaniards or the Native Americans? Why? Make a Double Bubble Map or a Venn Diagram. | F. Create a mini 3-D model of one of the CA Missions. List each part/room of mission and its function. |
| G. Listen to the song "This Land is Your Land" by Woody Guthrie. What message do you think the singer/song writer is trying to communicate to its listeners? Provide evidence. | H. Imagine you are a ranch owner trying to hire cowboys. Create an advertisement to attract potential cowboys to work for you. You may record yourself or make an 8 ½ by 11 poster with all the details. | I. Imagine you just moved to California during the Gold Rush. Write a letter to a friend about your life in the Gold Rush. |
